The Ramon Magsaysay Award is considered Asia's most prestigious prize, recognizing individuals and organizations who have made life-changing contributions to their communities, countries, and even the world. Established in 1957 by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, this award honors the legacy of former Philippines President Ramon Magsaysay, who exemplified integrity, advocacy for ordinary people, and idealism in a democratic society.

The award celebrates selfless service, excellence of work, magnanimity of spirit, and transformative leadership without discrimination based on race, creed, gender, or nationality.

This seven-volume book series has been created to celebrate and share the stories and wisdom of these remarkable individuals with the aim of inspiring future generations.

The Magsaysay Awardees come from diverse fields such as entrepreneurship, nation-building, arts, journalism, music, banking, community building, poverty eradication, and rehabilitation. Their extraordinary vision, philosophy, and work have provided innovative solutions to the challenging problems faced by Asia.

In a world that often seems bleak, these laureates serve as a source of inspiration. Their words and actions demonstrate the boundless potential of human endeavor, reminding us that a resolute determination to improve the world will always triumph over obstacles and hardships.

Gentry Press OPC exclusively published this special edition publication for the Ramon Magsaysay Award Foundation in the Philippines.
