Amidst a backdrop of global economic resilience and a domestic slowdown that led to reduced marketing budgets, MSL repositions itself from a conventional PR firm to a business-driven communications partner with three key business directions:

- GO LONG: transitioning to retainer-based relationships for long-term client partnerships;
- GO WIDE: broadening services to B2B communications and financial/IPO services;
- GO DEEP: developing sustainable marketing solutions that deliver long-term benefits.

To facilitate these goals, over 60% of the staff received intensive social and influencer marketing training within the year. Additionally, MSL introduced a proprietary, transformative influencer marketing tool and formed specialized teams focused on ESG and financial communications. These strategies resulted in double-digit growth for the fourth consecutive year, a new bid win rate exceeding 60%, exceptional client retention, a significant reduction in staff turnover, and the achievement of 25 communication awards, including the prestigious International Business Awards® last year.
