Clearpath is a full-service Learning & Development provider. Its mission: to perfect business performance so that companies thrive. Specializing in assessing/blueprinting role-based learning paths for complex organizations, Clearpath uses a performance-based approach to design, develop, and deliver engaging, interactive programming. For large initiatives, Clearpath provides strategic consulting and program management to maximize engagement and adoption of change throughout program implementation.

Since 2009, Clearpath has provided solutions for clients of all kinds and sizes. Working with such industry leaders as Amazon, AWS, Accenture, BMW, Uber Freight, and UKG, its efforts have helped even the most powerful businesses correct course and unlock opportunities.

Clearpath strives to arrive at distinctive solutions. Work begins with in-depth analysis of each client and industry to arrive at precise and well-defined project goals. Team practitioners can then align strategies with structures, develop programs of long-lasting worth, and design training that effectively supports an organization's growth and performance.

Over 15 years, Clearpath has seen exponential growth doubling year over year in revenue three of the last four years. It has worked with over 30 organizations, inclusive of Fortune 100, 500, and 1000 companies that serve all major industries across 11 countries and 6 six continents.

YOU are making a difference." – EVP, Worldwide Transportation Co.

Along with its program achievements, in 2023 Clearpath embarked on a brand and identity refresh.
